Annapolis

- Was founded in 1649 by Puritan exiles from the Virginia colony
- Is the state capitol of Maryland
- Is the home of the United States Naval Academy and St John's College
- Is situated on the Chesapeake Bay at the mouth of the Severn River
- Walkable downtown area with many restaurants and attractions

Location

- 26 miles south of Baltimore, 29 miles east of Washington, DC
- Serviced by 3 major airports
  - 61 miles from Washington Dulles International airport
  - 24 miles from Baltimore-Washington International Airport
  - 36 miles from Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport

Venue: Leows Annapolis Hotel

- Easy walking distance to the water front
- Was the venue of the 2010 IceCube Collaboration meeting
- Frequently used for UMD sponsored conferences
- Has working relationship with our travel office
- A variety of conference rooms are available on the ground floor
- Example prices:
  - Thomas Point Room seats 100 and was recently quoted at $750/day (is reduced based on food and beverage orders)
  - Recent quote of $139/night rooms was quoted for a group of 30, will drop for a larger group, depends on time of week/year, will drop for larger group

Summary

- A nice, touristically interesting place, with lots of restaurants
- East coast, close to major airports
- We have previous experience organizing conferences at this venue
