Contribution ID: 20 Type: not specified

Vector dark matter from inflation

Wednesday 17 April 2019 15:15 (25 minutes)

I describe a non-thermal mechanism, taking place at the end of inflation, to generate the dark matter relic abundance in the form of dark photons, whose mass can range between micro-eV to GeV. This dark matter candidate can have unusual features, possibly useful for signatures in direct and indirect detection.

Primary authors: BASTERO-GIL, Mar; SANTIAGO, Jose; LORENZO UBALDI, Lorenzo; VEGA-MORALES, Roberto

Presenter: LORENZO UBALDI, Lorenzo

Session Classification: Astroparticle and cosmology

Track Classification: Astroparticle and cosmology