

Welcome to Vertex 2007

16th International Workshop on Vertex Detectors

Local Organizers:

Marina Artuso, Steve Blusk, Gwen
Lefeuvre, Ray Mountain, Sheldon
Stone, Jianchung Wang

Introduction

- We are here to exchange information & improve our knowledge on detectors suitable to use for measuring small distances very precisely ~ few microns
- Under our umbrella is everything from decays of elementary particles such as B mesons, to medical imaging to telescopes

Structure

- Talks are mostly 20 min – Don't run over your time. There are an additional 10 min for questions & discussion
- There will be a Poster Session today before dinner. Please feel free to speak with the presenters, who should be present. (The posters will stay up through Tuesday)

Breaks

- We expect people also to get together at breakfast, coffee breaks & dinner, that are all provided
- At lunch we encourage you to engage in more in depth discussions, if possible, with a smaller group at one of many restaurants in town or at the hotel
  - or pick up a sandwich and enjoy a walk
  - or reserve a tennis court at the hotel desk
  - or use the pool & gym
