

Delayed opening of Tramway du Mont-Blanc

The exceptional snowfalls of the past 2 months have made changes obligatory in the planned re-opening dates for access to the Nid d'Aigle via the Tramway du Mont-Blanc. After close examination by our technical staff & the evident damage caused, the snow clearing & safety work along the line will be longer & more complicated than anticipated. The Compagnie du Mont-Blanc, with the full consent of the Saint Gervais council, has decided to modify the timetable as follows:

- 15th June: reopening of the Tramway du Mont-Blanc to Bellevue ONLY.
- 22nd June: scheduled reopening of the line to Nid d'Aigle depending on snow clearance & maintenance work.

To allow mountaineers to continue with their planned climbs, during the initial period (15th – 21st June), a special train will leave Le Fayet at 08h 00 to reach the Mont-Lachat terminus at 09h 00. A return trip will also be organized with a departure from Mont-Lachat at 17h 00 to arrive at Le Fayet at 18h 00. You will be informed of any changes in the above timetable.
