

CERN workshop on Innovations in Scholarly Communication (OAI4)

Friday, 21 October 2005

Library and Publishing Community Presentations - 500/1-001 - Main Auditorium (09:00 - 11:00)

-Conveners: Paul Ayris

| time | [id] title | presenter |
|-------|--|----------------|
| 09:00 | [12] Open Access - what has been going on? | SWAN, Alma |
| 09:40 | [13] Copyright moments in the life of an author | MOSSINK, Wilma |
| 10:20 | [14] Navigating the world of scholarly communication; the impact of OA publishing on the secondary publisher | POWELL, Andrea |

Library and Publishing Community Presentations - 500/1-001 - Main Auditorium (14:00 - 15:30)

-Conveners: Melissa Hagemann

| time | [id] title | presenter |
|-------|---|---------------------|
| 14:00 | [59] Making the innovation case in Open Access scholarly communication | DE BEER, Jennifer A |
| 14:30 | [51] Versions in the lifecycle of academic papers - user requirements and guidelines for digital repositories | SHIPSEY, Frances |
| 15:00 | [15] OpenDOAR - the Directory of Open Access Repositories | HUBBARD, Bill |

Library and Publishing Community Presentations: : submitted contributions - 500/1-001 - Main Auditorium (16:00 - 18:00)

-Conveners: David Prosser

| time | [id] title | presenter |
|-------|---|------------------------------------|
| 16:00 | [47] Quality and quantity: tackling real issues in an institutional research repository | Dr HEY, Jessie |
| 16:25 | [36] The DARE Programme. Successes and lessons learned: from libraries to laboratories | Dr WAAIJERS, Leo |
| 16:50 | [69] Certification and beyond – DINI open access activities in Germany | SCHOLZE, Frank DOBRATZ, Susanne |
| 17:15 | [70] OAI, Google Scholar and Wikipedia are the answers, but what is the question? | DOMINGUS, Marlon |