

Use of highly polarized electrons

Saturday, 11 March 2006 12:00 (20 minutes)

The access to the purest initial state is possible by use of two highly polarized electrons. We give an up-to-date review of where we stand in this effort - including its accessibility in the context of its basic compatibility with the beamline and detector used for e^+e^- - initiated interactions.

Primary author: HEUSCH, Clemens (SLAC)

Presenter: HEUSCH, Clemens (SLAC)

Session Classification: Higgs/Top and QCD/Gamma-Gamma

Track Classification: Gamma-Gamma e-Gamma e-e- Physics and Technology