➤ For the participants coming to Delhi:

All of you are requested to assemble in the lounge of the International Guest House, Delhi University North Campus (Note that there are two Guest Houses in Delhi University: University Guest House and International Guest House).

Delhi University is at distance of about 25km from Indira Gandhi International Airport and about 10km from New Delhi Railway Station. For the participants arriving by train at New Delhi Railway Station, it is very convenient to take from there yellow line Metro bound to Jahangir Puri/Vishwavidyalaya. You have to get down at Vishwavidyalaya Metro Station. You should come out at the Cavalry Lane side and proceed towards International Guest House which is hardly a km from there. It is also possible to hire a cycle rickshaw from metro station to Guest House. Those coming from airport may either hire a cab to the North Campus, Delhi University or take the Metro to New Delhi Railway Station. From New Delhi Railway Station again change to yellow line metro and proceed as above.

From the Vishwavidyalaya Metro Station, move away from road into the Cavalry Lane and proceed straight. At the T-junction, turn left. On your left will be some university flats. Move till you hit University Road (or Vishwavidyalaya Marg) and again turn next. The first Gate you will encounter on your left is International Guest House. In case you are coming from Mall Road side, just enter the university road and move straight. Just a few meters away on your right is the International Guest House.

Lunch is arranged for all of you at the International Guest House at 12:30pm. The lounge of the International Guest is booked from 8.30am. Our volunteers will be there to help you.
