The screenshot shows a web page for the German Teacher Programme. At the top, there is a blue header with the German flag on the left and the text "German Teacher Programme" on the right. Below the header, the date "12-17 Jun 2022" and "CERN" are displayed, along with the time zone "Europa/Zürich timezone". A search bar is located on the right side of the header. On the left side, there is a navigation menu with "Overview" selected, "Programm", and "Administrative Support:". Under "Administrative Support:", there is an email icon and the address "gtp-admin@cern.ch". The main content area contains the following text: "Dieses Deutsche Lehrerprogramm findet vom 12 - 17 Juni 2022 statt." followed by a paragraph about the program's focus on particle physics and teacher training. Below this, there is a link to "teachers.cern" for more information. A section titled "German Teacher Programme 2022:" provides the URL "https://indico.cern.ch/e/DETP22". Another section, "Kontaktpersonen während des Programms:", lists "Jeff Wiener" and "Sascha Schmeling" with their contact numbers. An "Im Notfall:" section provides the CERN fire department contact number. At the bottom, there is a calendar icon showing the dates and times, a location pin for "CERN", and a list of contact names: "Jeff Wiener" and "Sascha Schmeling".
