

Vote of Thanks for ACP2021

Honorable Invited Guests and panelists, Our most valued invited speakers and participants, Ladies and Gentlemen: Good afternoon.

It is my privilege to have been asked to propose a vote of thanks on this occasion.

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, I would like to express my gratitude to all esteemed participants including the representatives of the institutions: Dr. Melissa Denecke from IAEA, Dr. Shamila Nair-Bedouelle from UNESCO, Prof. Rolf Heuer from DESY, Dr. Raissa Malu, member of the DRC Presidential Panel to the African Union,

Prof. Oumar-Ka President of the Cheikh Anta Diop University, Prof. Catherine Jane Ngila from the African Academy of Sciences, as well as IEEE and the American Physical Society for their support and outstanding contributions to this conference.

Also a special thanks to the funding agencies of ASP.

I extend my gratitude to Pr. Hbid and Pr. El Ghachi, respectively President of Cadi Ayyad U. and Med V U. for supporting us with your words on the opening day.

An event like this cannot happen overnight. It requires planning and a birds eye for details. We have been fortunate enough to be backed by a team of very motivated and dedicated colleagues: I must thank the ACP2021 Committee for working hard for the past few months to make this virtual conference successful.

My Gratitude and special thanks to Kétévi Assamagan (BNL), Uhlrich Goerlach (Marseile) , Marco Silari (CERN), Christine Darve (ESS), Farida Fassi (Mohamed V U.), Mohamed Gouighri (Ibn Tofail U.) for the wonderful and friendly collaboration for making this conference a great success, even amidst the pandemic.

I realize that I missed a few other institutions and individuals who have been supporting us. I wish to be forgiven for not specifically expressing our gratitude.

At last, remind you that that the next Editions for the African School for fundamental School will talk place in South Africa by the end of this year 2022, and in Morocco in 2024.

Ladies and gentlemen, once again I want to state that we are all most grateful to all the guests and speakers as well as the participants, for gracing your important work and sharing with us your research works and ideas! — It has been a great pleasure.

Thank You Very Much!
