

Contribution ID: 49

Type: Poster

Emergent SUSY in 2d

We propose a renormalization group flow with emergent supersymmetry in two dimensions from a non-Lagrangian theory. The ultraviolet theory does not have supersymmetry while the infrared theory does. The flow is constrained analytically by topological defect lines including a new spin constraint, and further supported by numerics from the truncated conformal space approach.

Author: KIKUCHI, Ken

Co-authors: Prof. CHEN, Jin; Dr XU, Fengjun; Prof. CHANG, Chi-Ming

Presenter: KIKUCHI, Ken

Session Classification: Reception & Poster session