

“...However, since our WP is devoted to management training we need to be sure that this kind of training is also included in the initiative, albeit in a very light format.

It is not clear to me to which level of 'young scientists' (post-doc?) this school is targeted, but a short session on topics like team management, or project management/grant writing, or leadership could well be introduced half-day or in a different format (e.g., Q&A, etc.), if not already on the draft agenda...” [Enrico]
