CTA Status and Roadmap

Wednesday 9 March 2022 09:35 (20 minutes)

CTA entered into production at CERN in 2020 and physics data taking into CTA started in July 2021. 2022 will see the start of LHC Run-3, with combined experiment data rates up to 40 GB/s. This presentation will give an overview of CTA's preparation and readiness for the upcoming Run, as well as a look forward to software features in the development pipeline.
