【34】 IUPAP and the International Year of Basic Sciences for Sustainable Development (IYBSSD)

Thursday 30 June 2022 12:00 (15 minutes)

IUPAP is the promoter and organizer of the International Year of Basic Sciences for Sustainable Development (IYBSSD). This International Year will span over 2022 and 2023 (Opening Ceremony in UNESCO Headquarters on July 8th 2022 in Paris, Closing Ceremony end of September 2023 at CERN in the new Science Gateway Building). Many events are expected to happen during 2022 and 2023. This International Year is perfectly in line with the mission of IUPAP to help in the applications of physics towards solving problems of concern to humanity.
