

Code of Conduct for participants of the [event name] at CERN IdeaSquare

In order to make the [event name] a success, each participant commits himself/herself to complying with the following rules of conduct during his/her stay on the CERN site:

1. You are expected to:
 - wear your CERN badge at all times and be identifiable;
 - follow all rules and regulations applicable on the CERN site and any instructions given to you by CERN staff or security guards; and
 - respect the integrity of the CERN premises and the tranquility of other people on site.
2. You are expected to stay in the areas designated by CERN staff and not touch any of the equipment unless you are specifically authorized to do so. Please note that CERN staff may refuse access to a given area at any time if she/he deems that such access could compromise safety in any way.
3. In the event of an alarm, please stay calm and follow the instructions given to you by the CERN staff who are trained for such situations and will lead you to the nearest emergency exit.
4. Participation in the activities is prohibited to anyone who is under the influence of alcohol. Alcohol, as well as dangerous objects, are prohibited from being brought onto the site.
5. Please take care of any personal property that you bring with you as you will remain fully responsible for it. CERN does not bear any liability for loss or damage to personal property.

Persons under the age of 18 remain under the supervision and authority of their appointed adult supervisor(s) at all times.

Persons under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

In case of non-compliance with this Code of Conduct, CERN may take any measures it deems appropriate, including prohibiting participation in the experiment.
