

Quantum Interference in Jets at Subleading Color

In this talk, I introduce observables for identification of quantum interference effects in jets from the interference of gluon states with distinct color quantum numbers. These effects are exclusively beyond the leading-color approximation, and so can have important consequences for fixed-order predictions or parton shower modeling that includes full-color physics.

Author: LARKOSKI, Andrew (SLAC National Accelerator Laboratory)

Presenter: LARKOSKI, Andrew (SLAC National Accelerator Laboratory)