

Contribution ID: 240

Type: Talk (preferred)

Ionospheric Corrections for High Frequency Line of Sight Satellite Observations During Solar Minimum

Friday, 16 December 2022 09:30 (15 minutes)

Ionospheric corrections are applied to satellite observations made using a high frequency line of sight radar during solar minimum using numerical ray-tracing. Results showed mean error in satellite position compared to two-line-element propagation decreased to within 1 km.

Primary author: CAMILLERI, Tristan

Co-author: Dr CERVERA, Manuel

Presenter: CAMILLERI, Tristan

Session Classification: AIP: Solar Terrestrial and Space Physics

Track Classification: AIP Congress: AIP: Solar Terrestrial and Space Physics