

Contribution ID: 412

Type: Talk (preferred)

Black Hole Thermodynamics in de Sitter Spacetimes

Wednesday 14 December 2022 16:00 (15 minutes)

We study black hole thermodynamics in asymptotically de Sitter spacetimes, which is poorly understood owing to the presence of the cosmological horizon. We use a path integral approach to make equilibrium manifest, and study the resulting phase structure.

Author: SIMOVIC, Fil (Macquarie University)

Co-author: MANN, Robert (University of Waterloo)

Presenter: SIMOVIC, Fil (Macquarie University)

Session Classification: AIP: Theoretical and Mathematical

Track Classification: AIP Congress: AIP: Theoretical and Mathematical