Teacher Programmes in 2022 & 2023

- Decision regarding restart of on-site activities to be taken by 1 April
- Potential restart of CERN Teacher Programmes as of June 2022
- Reduced number of participants in line with CERN's safety measures for groups
- Different programme format due to reduced availability of CERN's facilities

- Planning for 2023 will start next week involving all national coordinators
- ONLINE teacher programmes will continue to run – depending on demand
- HYBRID teacher programmes will be evaluated as an option for the future

Merci bien!
