

Welcome to Budapest

The Academy – “From Darkness, the Light”

Johann Ender: Borúra derű / From Darkness, the Light (1831)

Miklós Barabás: Count István Széchenyi (1848)

- In 1825 Count István Széchenyi offered one year's income of his estate for a Learned Society at a district session of the Diet in Pressburg, and his example was followed by other delegates
- For the development of the Hungarian language and the study and propagation of the sciences and the arts in Hungarian
- The central building was inaugurated in 1865

Sponsors

Wigner Research Centre for Physics

NATIONAL
RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT
AND INNOVATION OFFICE

National Research, Development and Innovation Office

Eötvös Loránd University

Hungarian Academy of Sciences