

Contribution ID: 65

Type: not specified

Light Dark Matter and Neutrino Telescopes

Thursday, April 21, 2011 6:00 PM (15 minutes)

I discuss the possibility of light dark matter as an explanation for the anomalies seen at the direct detection experiments DAMA, CoGeNT and CRESST. I derive new strong limits on light dark matter from neutrino telescopes. Finally, I introduce a realization of light dark matter in a singlet extension of the MSSM.

Primary author: Mr WINKLER, Martin (Technische Universität München)

Presenter: Mr WINKLER, Martin (Technische Universität München)

Session Classification: Contributed Talks