

Jakub Jelinek

Jakub is a student of Computing Science at the University of Glasgow with interest in high-performance cluster computing. Before the CERN Summer Student program, he was a successful Google Summer of Code contributor in the Fortran-lang organisation, a Data Management Intern at ELI Beamlines and a Software Developer at technology company ReguCon.

Outside the computing field, he enjoys hiking, cycling, and fencing. He is also a scout leader.