How to evaluate students' answers and build on them? –the workshop for physics teachers

Thursday 29 August 2024 10:50 (20 minutes)

We present the workshop we developed and conducted with the physics teachers using the findings of our previous study regarding the teachers' interpretation of and responses to students' explanations. We explain how the goals of the workshops stemmed from the research findings, present the details of the workshop procedure and participants' activities and discuss how the outcomes of the workshop relate to the research findings.
