

Practical considerations: this evening

- Following discussion on the future, the bus will leave for the Meyrin site. It will stop for a while at the hostel, and then leave for dinner at about 18:15.
- Dinner will be in the Jura mountains at an altitude of 1100 meters. It will be somewhat colder than here, so dress appropriately if you can.
- After dinner, the bus will return to the hostel.
- The bus will NOT return to Prévessin this evening! If you have a car here, please drive it to the hostel and take the bus from there. If you take the bus from here your car will be stranded.
