

Topic 6: Innovation in water management

Participants will be presented with case studies of promising new innovation technology in the field of water management and the exploration of new and renewable sources of water.

Session Classification: Morning's activities