

Digital tools in teaching physics at university level – challenges and lessons learned

Thursday 7 September 2023 13:00 (1h 30m)

Abstract: The overview of the use of digital technologies in teaching and learning of physics will be presented with the emphasis on the developments in recent years.

The focus of the talk will be on the challenges we were and are confronted with (such as COVID-19 pandemic) and the lessons learned from the implementation of new technologies and approaches in university courses.

Presenter: IVANJEK, Lana

Session Classification: Keynote speaker