Programme

The scientific programme will start at 08:45 on Monday 17 July with an opening speech from University of Southampton Vice President (Research & Enterprise), Professor Mark Spearing.

A full timetable of plenary and parallel talks can be found on the conference website. The plenary talks will be held in Building 100, in lecture theatre 1001. Parallel sessions will take place in Buildings 100 and 46, as detailed on the timetable.

Information for plenary and parallel speakers

The duration of talks is 25 minutes plus 5 minutes for invited plenary talks and 15 minutes + 5 minutes for parallel talks. The talks are synchronized across all the parallel sessions and it is therefore essential for the success of the parallel programme that speakers keep to the allocated time.

Conference desktops with projectors will be used in all the sessions. Please prepare your presentation in Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf) or Microsoft PowerPoint Format (.ppt, .pptx). No other formats can be supported.

You are required to upload your presentation via indico at least two hours prior to the start of your session.

Conference Group Photograph

Participants are invited to meet outside Building 100 on Tuesday 18 July at 13:00 for a group photograph.

General information

Weather

The average high/low temperatures in Southampton in July are 22°C/14°C (72°F/57°F) but you should certainly bring protection against rain as a safeguard.

UK Emergency Number

In the UK 999 is the emergency number for police, ambulance, fire brigade, coastguard, cliff rescue, mountain rescue, etc. This number should be used only when urgent attendance by the emergency services is required, for example someone is seriously ill or injured, or a crime is in progress. Calls are free, and 999 can be dialled from a locked mobile phone.

Stores

On Highfield Campus you will find a range of catering outlets. The Student Union Shop is open 08:00 to 18:00 Monday to Friday and sells a range of goods including fresh produce, newspapers, confectionery, travel adaptors and stationery. There are also small supermarkets on Burgess Road (walking up University Road and turning right).

Local Restaurants

Places to Eat & Drink in Southampton | Restaurants, Bars & Pubs \(visitsouthampton.co.uk\)

You might also wish to explore Winchester, the first capital of England, with its 11th -century cathedral and historic buildings. Winchester is 12 miles north of Southampton and easily accessible by train from Southampton Airport Parkway Station. Portsmouth Historic Dockyard is an hour's train or coach journey from Southampton.

Getting around

There is a hub for UniLink buses on campus adjacent to the conference site. These can take you to the City Centre, Southampton Airport, Southampton Airport Parkway Station, Southampton Central Station and the Glen Eyre Halls of Residence. For network maps and timetables see <https://www.unilinkbus.co.uk/services>.
