LHCb secretariat !

A huge thank you to everyone for their time and energy

We are only one loop or one question away from great things

Thank you to the people who make LHCb what it is, to those who continue to nourish the discussions, debate and analyse the results and help us understand better our field.

We can only move forward by asking questions, so please do so.

Welcome drink today at 19:00 in R1

Apologies to the people on zoom !

Save the date! October 21, 2024

In advance thank you to everyone for their hard work.

May the workshop begin !
