String Phenomenology 2023

Contribution ID: 51 Type: not specified

Meson scattering from string scattering in holographic QCD

Tuesday 4 July 2023 15:15 (15 minutes)

We present a detailed study of the applications of holographic QCD to the scattering of mesons. The starting point is that mesons are described as strings in curved confining backgrounds. We show how, through holography, we can modernize the description of hadrons as strings, and how to approach meson scattering in the framework of holography.

Presenter: WEISSMAN, Dorin
Session Classification: Parallel