Overview of the Coffea-Casa Analysis Facility hosted at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Thursday 19 October 2023 11:35 (25 minutes)

An overview of the Coffea-Casa Analysis Facility hosted at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. This talk will cover the technical on-prem implementation details, including networking and storage, of this Kubernetes based cluster along with the application stack supporting HEP analysis users. Integration attempts with the local USCMS Tier2 and discussion of both where we want to go and where we have failed to get will also be discussed.
