

DAQ and online

more extensive report next week

JSG will be coming to RAL in a couple weeks to check all equipment that may have been damaged by the power glitch in January

Given that damage keeps coming up in unexpected ways it would be wise to envisage a full scale running of MICE reasonably soon to make sure we discover all faulty equipment