

A model of two dark matter candidates with equal abundance

Tuesday 4 June 2024 17:00 (20 minutes)

We consider a model with two inert scalars, originating two dark matter (DM) particles. We identify the criteria ensuring that the inert vacuum is the global minimum. While taking into account all the theoretical and current experimental constraints, we find unexplored regions of parameter space where the two DM candidates contribute equally to the experimental relic density.

Primary author: TEIXEIRA BOTO, Rafael Filipe (Instituto Superior Técnico)

Presenter: TEIXEIRA BOTO, Rafael Filipe (Instituto Superior Técnico)

Session Classification: Parallel Session PI.7