Compute and Accelerator Forum - 14 February

- CAF Organising team news:
  - Seth Johnson from ORNL has joined the organising team and will bring us the US perspective for the forum - welcome to him!
- Today we have a talk on HEPIX Benchmarking from Domenico Giordano (CERN)
- We are organising the meetings now for the rest of 2024
  - In March we are arranging for vendor roadmap updates
    - Most likely connected with the openlab Technical Workshop
    - So we move this meeting to 27 March
      - Updates from Nvidia and Intel expected, TBC!
      - And later in the year we hope to get the AMD update
  - April: High performance IO for HEP, talks from HEP-CCE and ROOT
  - May: GPU update from CERN IT + something else ;-)
- If you would like to present or to propose a topic, please get in touch
