

HP2024
NAGASAKI

Welcome

Tatsuya Chujo

University of Tsukuba

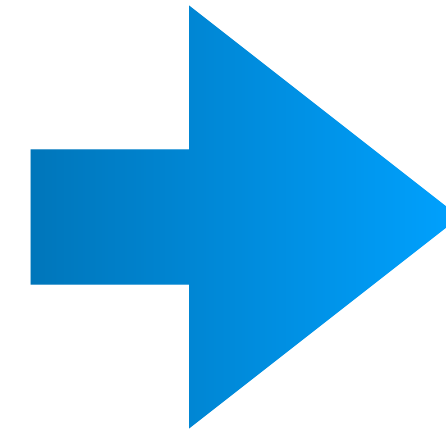

On behalf of HP2024 Local Organizing Committee

出島（でじま）：DEJIMA

- Small fan-shaped artificial island built in 1636 in the bay of Nagasaki
- Served as Japan's only open window to Europe in the period of seclusion during the Edo era
- Played a vital role in the modernization of Japan, including cultivation of scientific knowledge in medicine and physics

DEJIMA in 2024 = HP2024

A place that fosters connections among physicists from all over the world

→ New ideas, new concepts, new results at HP2024 on hard probes!

HP2024
N A G A S A K I

Practical Information

* Please refer to the booklet and indico for details

Free WiFi

Floor	SSID	Password
1	dejimach1	nagasakich1
2	dejimach2	nagasakich2

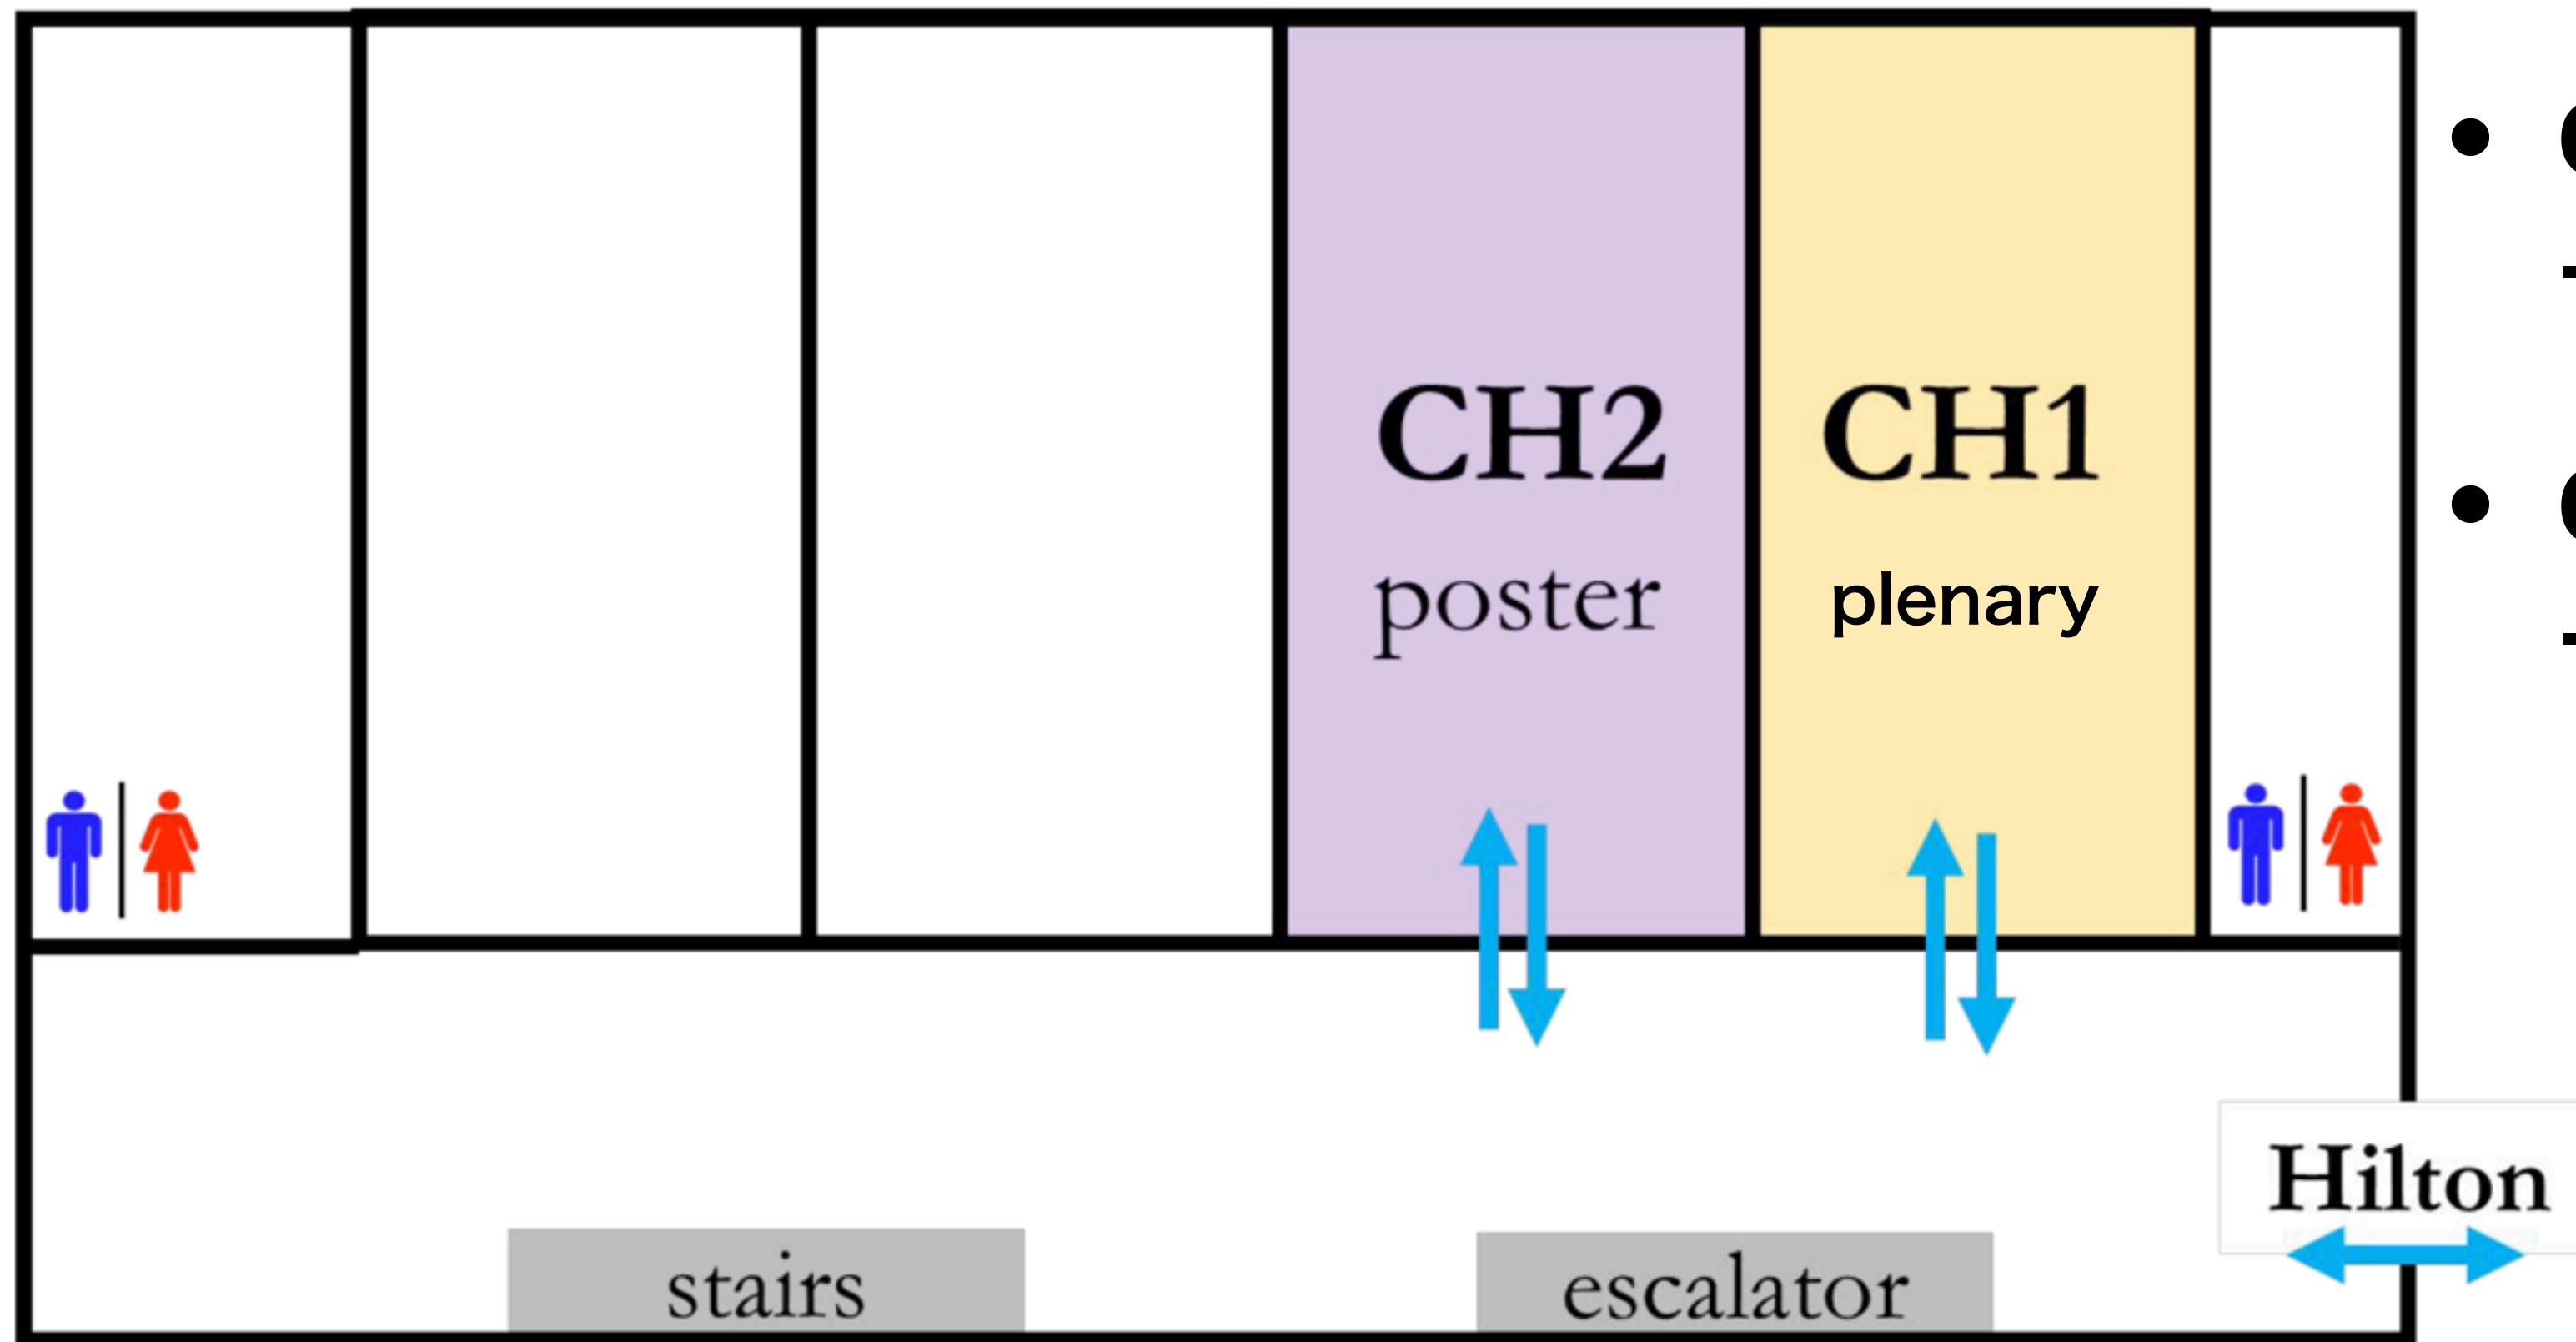

Timetable

- All information in HP2024 indico
- HEPCon app is also available (see HP2024 indico)
- See also instruction for presenters

Conference rooms

2nd floor

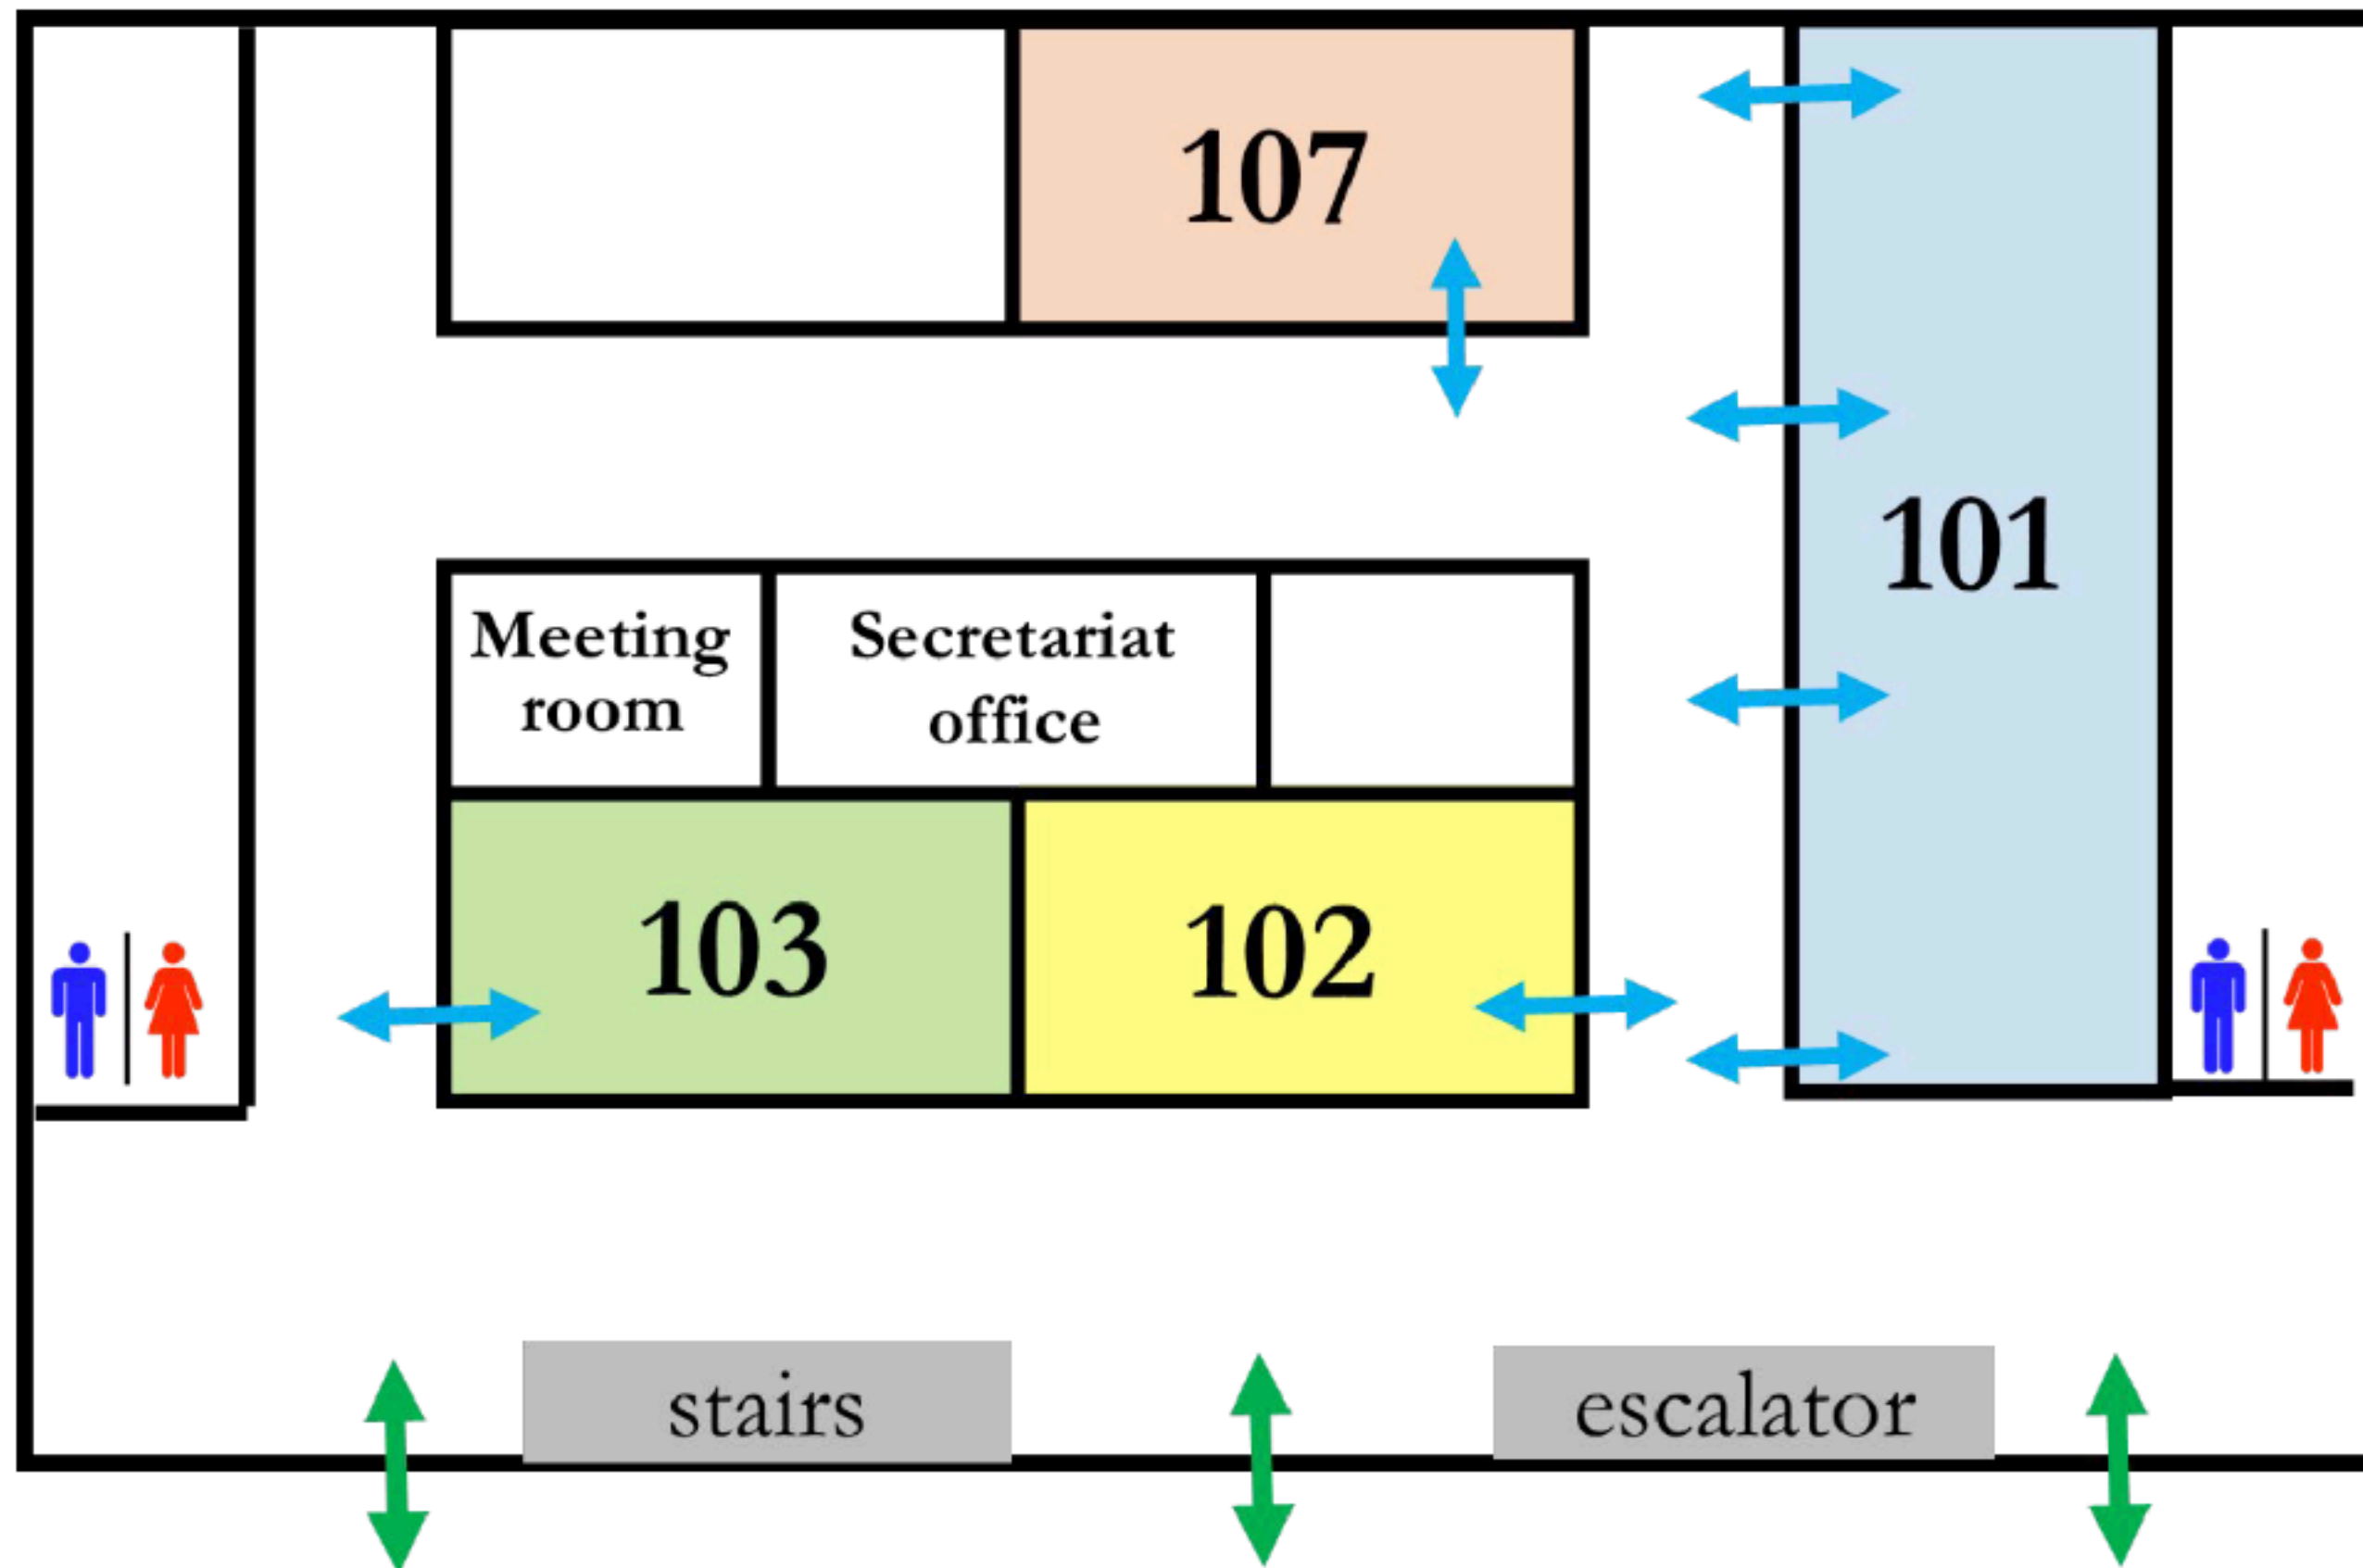

YOU ARE HERE

- CH1:
 - plenary and parallel sessions
- CH2:
 - poster session (on Tuesday)

Conference rooms

1st floor

- Room 102, 103, 107:
 - parallel sessions
- Room 101:
 - Lunch (Tue.-Thu.)
- Secretariat office:
 - open from 8 AM to the end of sessions
 - registration, lost-and-found, trouble in uploading slides
- Meeting room:
 - you can use the room for discussion, zoom meeting, etc.

Lunch

On Monday:

Bento will be distributed in front of the session room CH1.

You can take one box by showing Bento Ticket provided at registration desk.

For those who requested special meals for vegetarian or dietary, macrobiotic Bento is prepared.

On Tuesday-Thursday:

Buffet Lunch will be served in room 101

You can use Room 101, any session rooms, and common space in the venue

Conference dinner

On Wednesday:

@ Premier Hall, 3rd floor, The Global View Nagasaki
within 10 minutes on foot

Welcome drink available already at 18:30

Dinner 19:00~21:00

Please don't forget to come with your badge!!

Thank you for joining HP2024 and Enjoy the conference !!

HP2024
N A G A S A K I