

Welcome!

Daniel Hynds, Håkan Wennlöf, Paul Schütze, Simon Spannagel

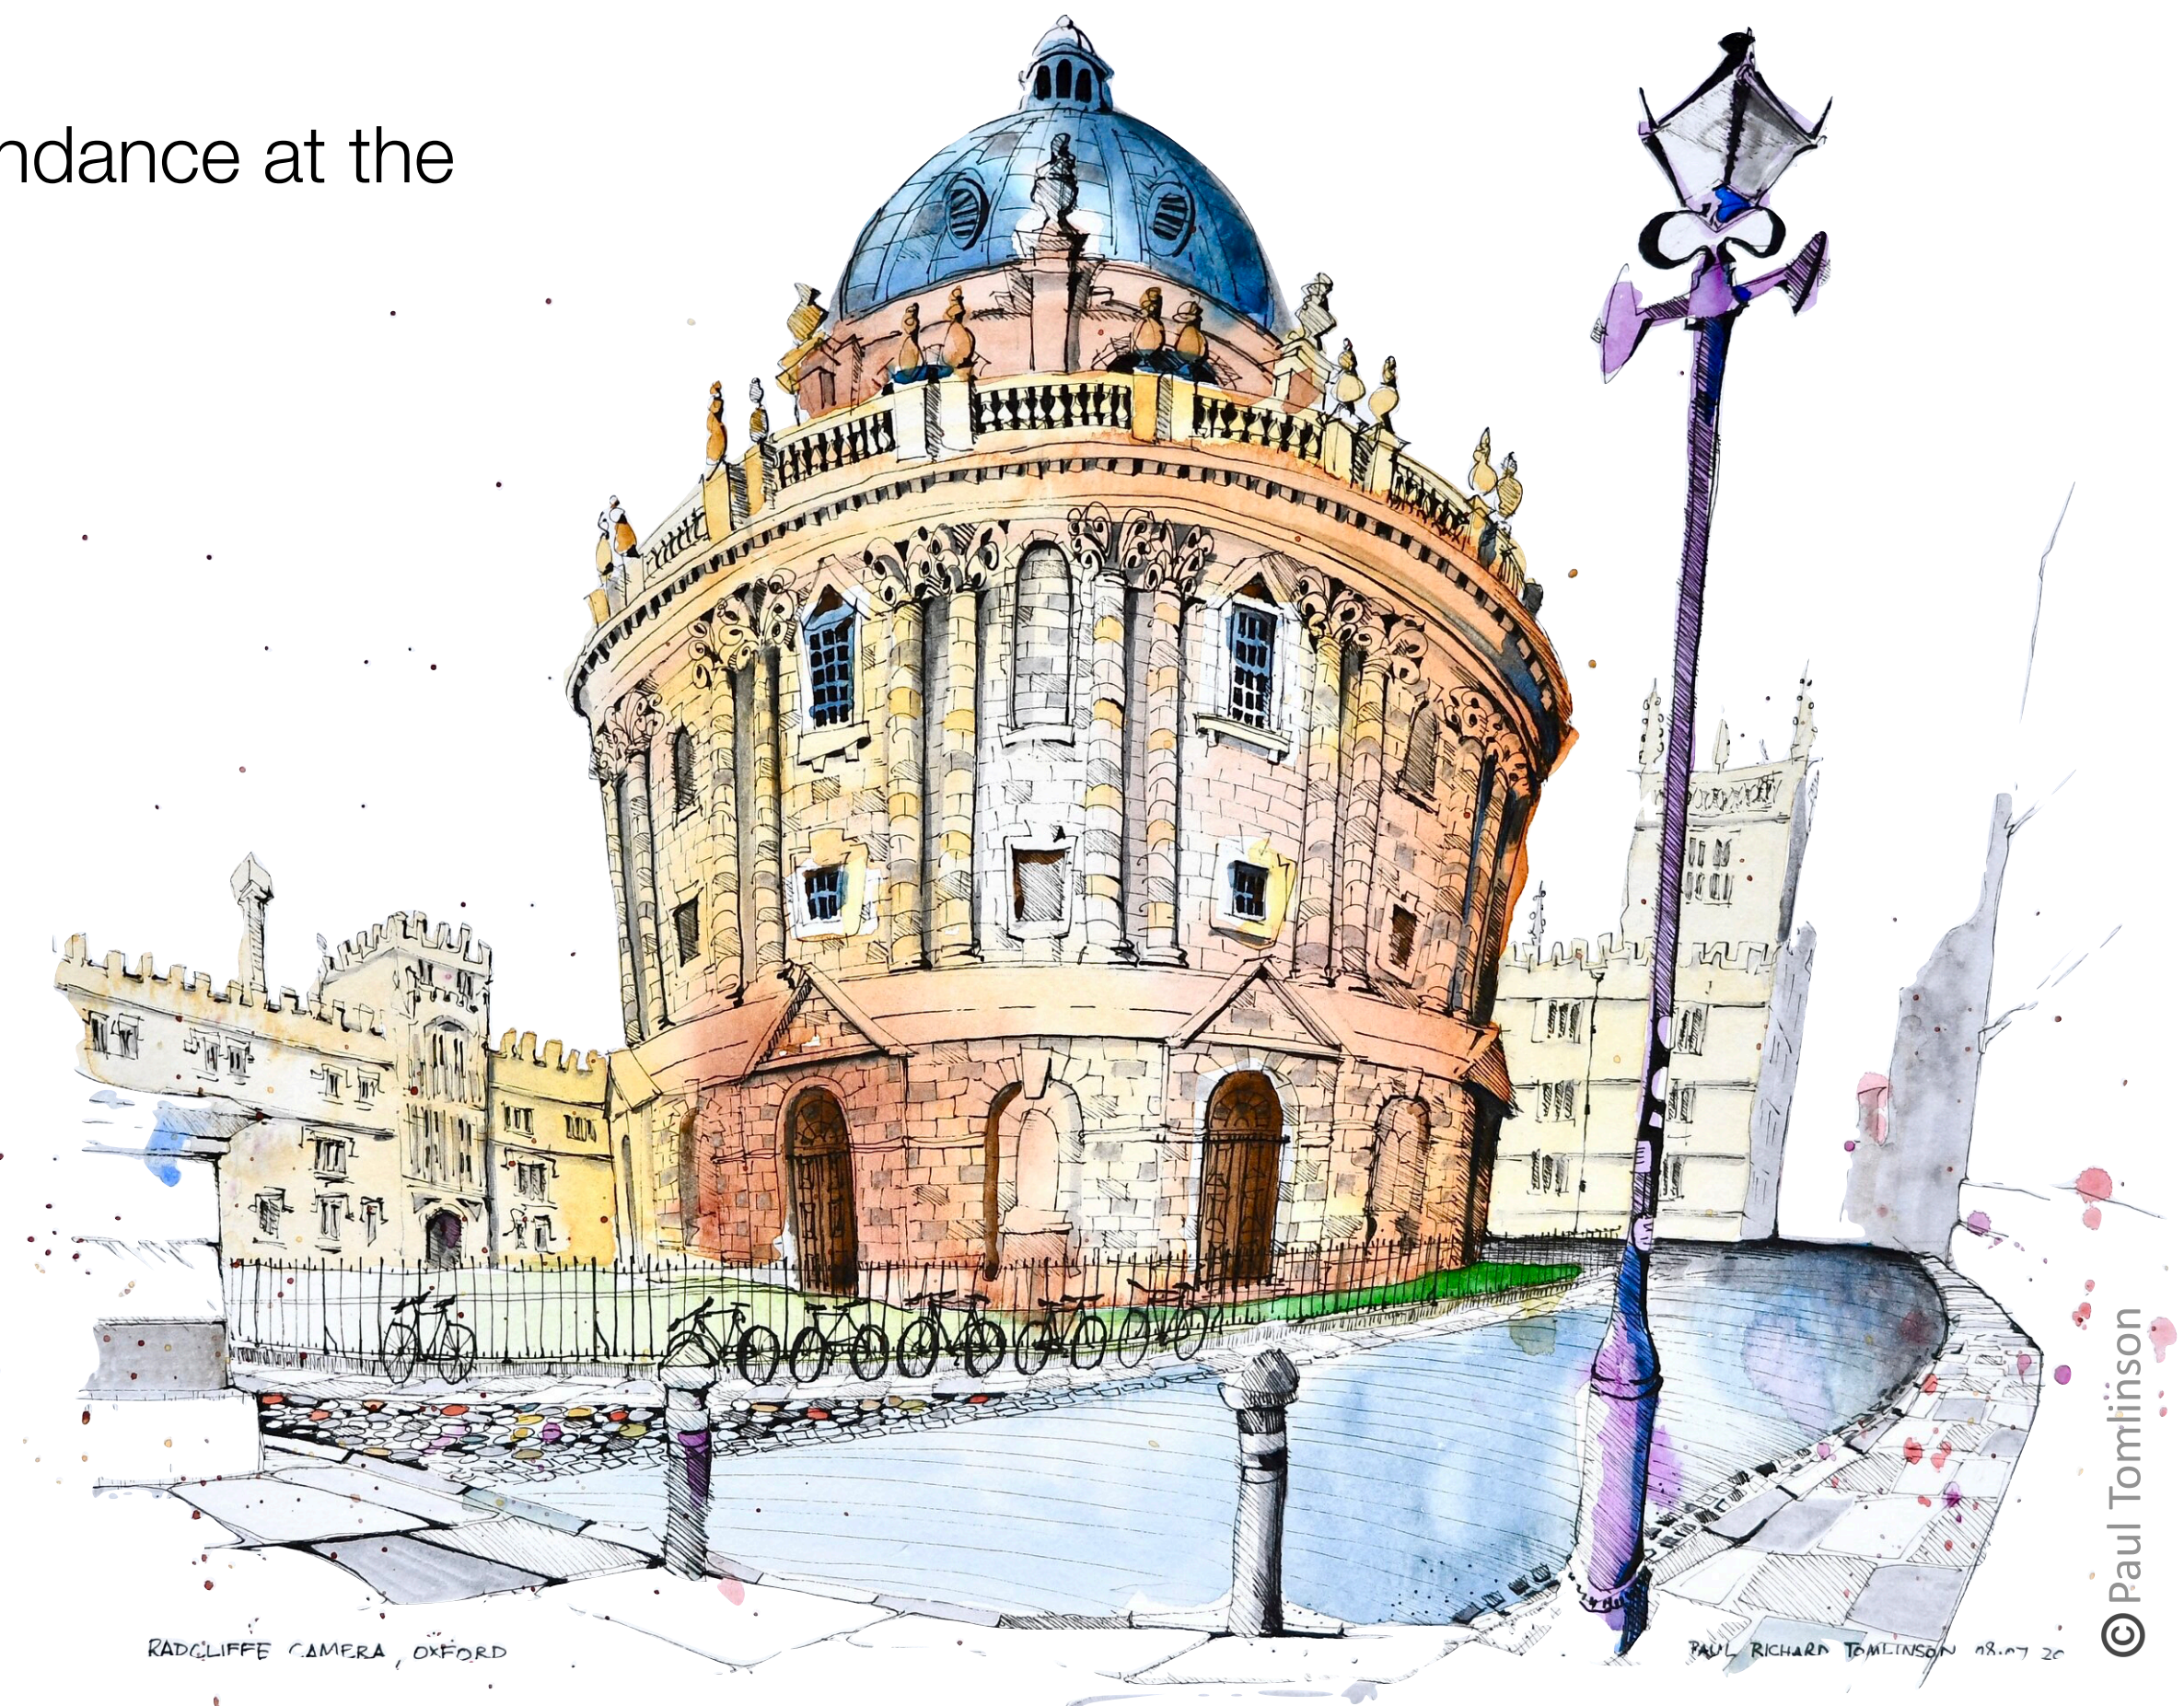

Welcome to Oxford

The university has a long and convoluted history

- Founding of the university in c1096
- Large expansion following Henry II ban on student attendance at the University of Paris in 1167

The university structure reflects its organic growth

- 39 constituent colleges, operating independently
- 4 divisions, sub-divided into departments

The organising committee

Logistics

All lectures will take place here

- Dennis Sciama Lecture Theatre, Dennis Wilkinson Building

Lunches and coffee will be held in the foyer just outside the lecture theatre

Speakers are asked to upload their slides to indico before the session starts

- Talks are scheduled for 25 minutes - 20 + 5

Timetable

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

AM

Applications

New features + developments

Lunch

PM

Welcome + overview

Applications

Applications

Social activity

Social dinner

Social dinner

The social dinner will take place this evening at the Perch

- 800 year old 'Free House' on the Thames

This is a ~30 minute walk from the DWB, we will leave from the entrance at 17:00

- Dinner is booked for 18:00

Social activity

Friday will be spent on/in/surrounded by water

- Punting is an old Oxford tradition, as is relaxing on the shore watching tourists figure out what to do when the pole sticks in the ground...
- Meet at 15:00 on Friday outside the DWB to walk to the Cherwell Boat House

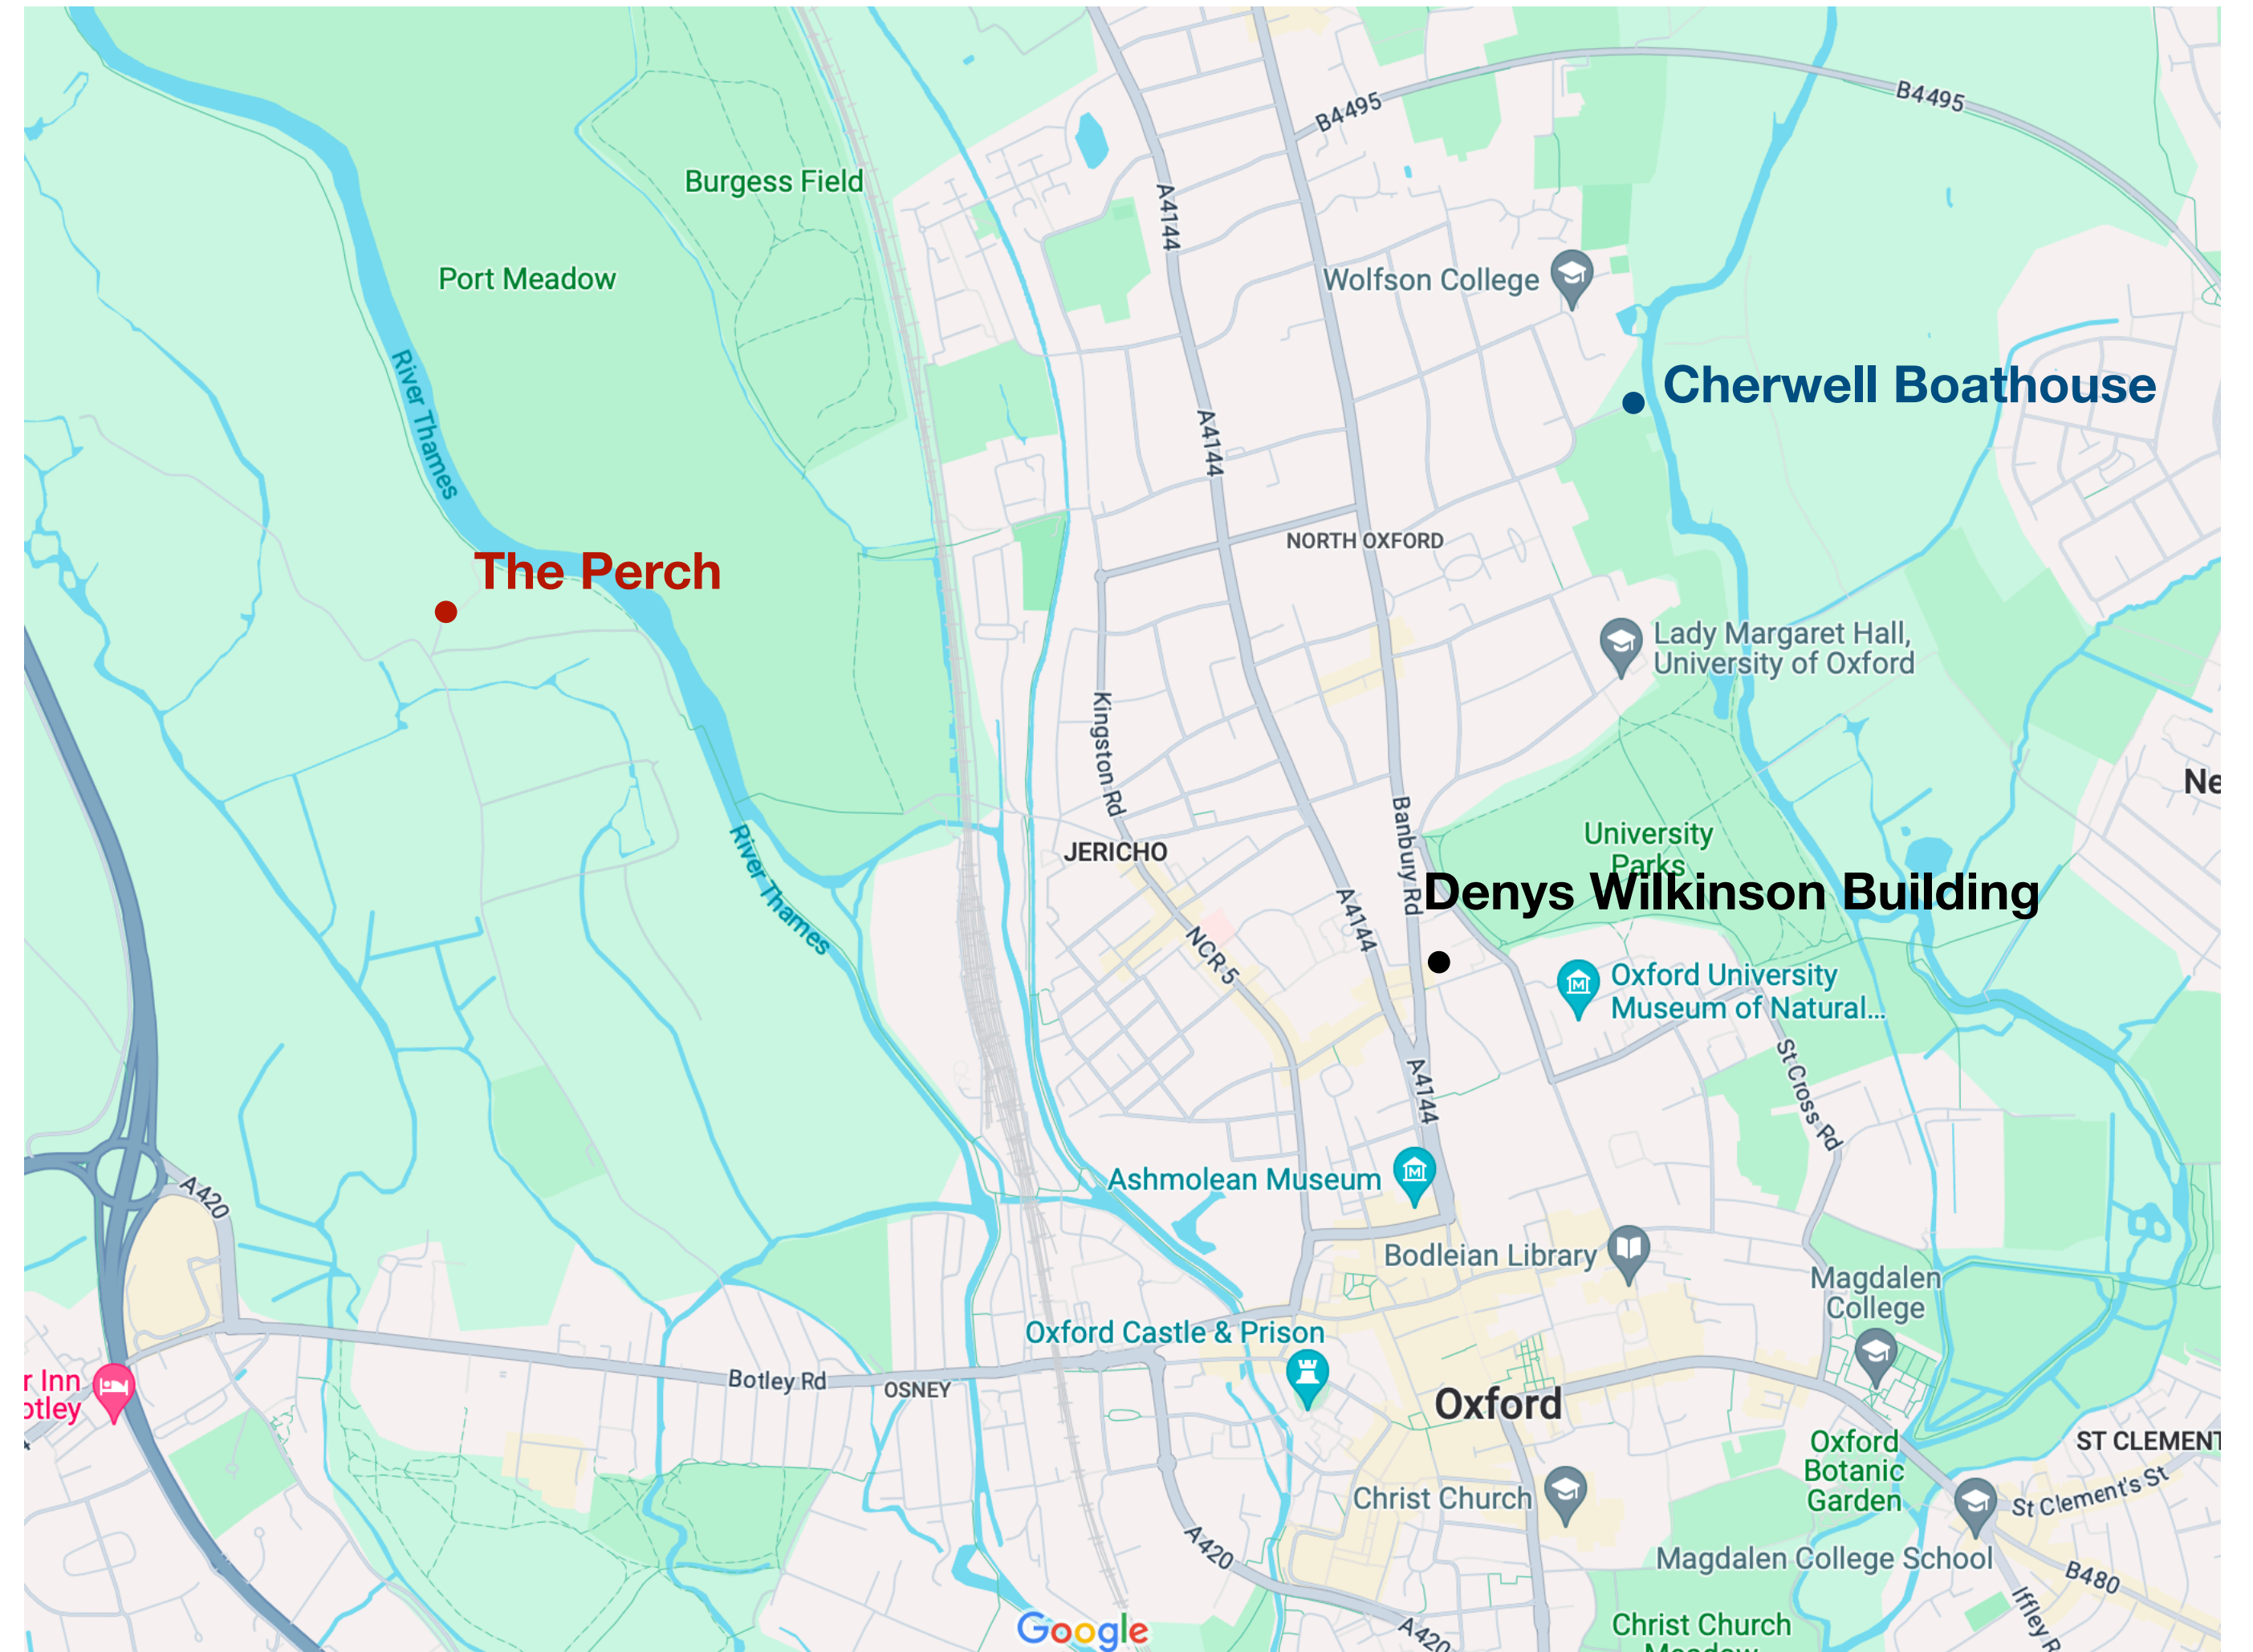

<https://cherwellboathouse.co.uk>

Navigation

Oxford is quite compact and walking everywhere is straightforward

- ~15 minutes from DWB to Cherwell Boathouse
- ~30 minutes from DWB to the Perch, via Port Meadow

Navigation

Oxford is quite compact and walking everywhere is straightforward

- ~15 minutes from DWB to Cherwell Boathouse
- ~30 minutes from DWB to the Perch, via Port Meadow

A large number of buildings and colleges to visit

- Do take time to visit a few!

