

Ascending Mount Brocken

Sunday 4 August 2024 10:30 (2 hours)

We will hike up Mount Brocken to the highest part of the Harz mountains (or hills, depending on your frame of reference :P)

At the top, there will be possibilities for getting lunch, and for the last part of the way we will hike right next to the tracks of a steam locomotive driving up the mountain.

Don't forget to bring ample water, protection against sun and rain, and shoes suitable for a longer hike!
