

Muons not radiating will typically hit 4 cells. As they are below the threshold, these are not flagged as a shower.

When a muon radiates, the amount of hits received in a given period of time rises above the threshold. and the Superlayered is flagged as a shower.

Number of hits in each event, labeled by identification result and separated by Super Layers.