

Romain David

ERINHA AISBL (European Research Infrastructure on Highly Pathogenic Agents), Bruxelles

Biography

Dr. Romain David is a Researcher - Data Steward at ERINHA AISBL (European Research Infrastructure on Highly Pathogenic Agents). He has a PhD and 20+ year exp both in terrestrial / marine ecological engineering, Life Sciences information systems and database management - network animation.

Romain David is a "Data Mining and graph approach" advocate and a Data Management Plan with FAIR Compliance evangelizer. He is an interoperability specialist interested in terminology and semantic. Involved in a BSL4 laboratories network, he has to increase sensitive data sharing dealing with high containment facilities policies and Dual Use Research Concerns.

He is also a member of the EOSC-A Opportunity Area 2 (interoperability), EOSC-A Opportunity Area 5 (skills and training), the EOSC TF FAIR Metrics and digital Object and co-chair 2 IG in the Research Data Alliance (Sensitive Data IG and Professionalizing Datastewardship IG). He is also involved in the COSO (Open Science Comity in France) He is newly also member of the Research Data Alliance Technical Advisory Board.

Contact me:

romain.david@erinha.eu

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/romain-david-ph-d-77181b32/>

OSCARS: <https://oscars-project.eu/>

ERINHA <https://erinha.eu/>