

Sara Di Giorgio

GARR

Biography

Sara Di Giorgio, works at GARR and is the Coordinator of the European project Skills4EOSC (2022-2025), which is establishing a network of Competence Centres across Europe to train and upskill researchers and professionals in FAIR data management and open science practices. She is part of the coordination team of ICDI, the Italian Mandated Organisation in EOSC-A, and plays a key role in its Competence Centre.

Sara has extensive experience managing European projects for research infrastructures, particularly in cultural heritage and digital humanities. She was involved in the EOSC-Pillar project (2019-2022), which aligned national initiatives and research infrastructures across Italy, Germany, Austria, and Belgium. From 2007 to 2020, she led CulturalItalia, the national aggregator of digital collections for Italy's Ministry of Culture, and from 2018 to 2020, she served on the Europeana Management Board.
