

Mauro Campanella

GARR

Biography

Mauro Campanella is innovation coordinator and responsible for international research projects for the Italian research and education Network (GARR). He has a degree in physics and started working on computers and networks in 1984. He participated to various European Projects. He contributed since the first generation of the GEANT project. He is currently PI of the TeRABIT project in Italy on hyperconnected, distributed HPC. He represents GARR as mandated organization for Italy in EOSC.

Contact me:

<https://it.linkedin.com/in/mauro-campanella-53633b62>