

Session Program

5-7 Feb 2025

2025 ECREA Communication History Workshop

The Past is Emergent: Transformation and Continuities in Networking

CERN

Thursday 6 February

09:00

The Past is Emergent: Transformation and Continuities in Networking

Session | Location: CERN

09:00–09:12

Epistolary networks: reconsidering the history of communication technologies.

Speaker

Jerome Bourdon

09:12–09:24

Trolling from the past: the heavy legacy of the world's first vaccine coverage and the anti-vaccine leagues counterpart

Speakers

Hernâni Zão Oliveira, Helena Lima

09:24–09:36

"Opening the doors to cyberspace and discovering this was a hospitable territory": Community Memory, an electronic social network in the pre-digital age

Speaker

Julie Momméja

09:36–09:48

Understanding the Continuity and Transformation of Mobile Media Over Time: Insights into the Dynamics of Communication and Control

Speaker

Elif Grant

09:48–10:00

The transformation of networks through mobility and the inclusion of cities as a territory of social practices

Speakers

Eduardo Campos Pellanda, Mágda Rodrigues da Cunha

10:00–10:12

Communication and networks before the digital age

Speaker

Christine Davidsson Sandal

10:12–10:15

Discussion: The Past is Emergent: Transformation and Continuities in Networking

10:15