

Become an ARIA Programme Director: Want to direct £50m+ towards a world-changing breakthrough?

The banner features a dark background with a subtle pattern of white dots. On the left, the text 'Advanced Research + Invention Agency' is stacked vertically next to the large 'ARIA' logo. Below the logo, it says 'Is searching for Programme Directors'. In the center, the text 'Want to direct £50m+ towards a world-changing breakthrough?' is displayed. On the right, a paragraph explains the opportunity: 'Create a programme around your own scientific or technical vision. As of September 2024, ARIA will be recruiting for our second cohort — scientists and engineers with diverse fields of expertise across industry and academia.' Below this, the event details are listed: 'Visiting CERN - Auditorium 222', '11th September 2024', '15:00 - 18:00', and 'Talks + Networking Session'.
