Feedback & discussion

Thursday 7 November 2024 17:30 (30 minutes)

The OSPO needs your input: we do this for you, to help open-source projects. Please come with your ideas and concerns; better yet: share them in this live Q&A, which will be discussed in the feedback and discussion session. After the event, you can share your feedback by sending an email to Open.Source@cern.ch or at the forum.
