

Doc-u-sprint

Why

- Documentation is important but Rucio documentation is pretty messy
- Dedicated times to do something means they're more likely to get done

What

---

- Dedicated effort for fixing user-facing documentation
- Sprint board with high priority issues added by organizers, open for new issues to be added by anyone
  - Focus on user facing documentation, python client examples
- Daily progress reports and dedicated mattermost channel for discussion and questions
- Honors for the person who contributes the most

When and Where

---

- December 2 - 13th

Registration/Headcount for effort estimation going out ??

- Fully Remote
