The 3rd Collaboration Meeting in Catania

- Very well organised and extremely pleasant !
 - The place, the weather, the food, ... and the local people have kept, if not exceeded, the high expectations we have about Sicily !
- A lively, interesting and broad meeting which inspires optimism for the future
 - ...as well as a lot of work !
- With the new format – as many plenary sessions as possible – we have not left topics for discussion due to lack of time, for the first time !
 - Suggestions and ideas for the next Collaboration Meeting are welcome !

See you next year !

- Thanks to all participants – both to those present here in Catania and those remotely via Zoom !
- Hope to see many of you next year, at the 30th Collaboration Meeting !
- Thanks in advance to our US colleagues for hosting us
 - Makoto Asai, John Hobbs, Torre Wenaus
 - Stony Brook University, Brookhaven National Laboratory, Thomas Jefferson National Accelerator Facility
