

Searches for new particles using jets, photons or missing energy using the ATLAS detector

Many theories beyond the Standard Model (SM) predict new physics phenomena that decay to photons, jets or missing energy. This talk summarises the latest results from the ATLAS detector using the Run-2 dataset, involving these final states. A number of sensitive kinematics are explored, including the invariant mass and angular distributions.

Author: SPEAKER, ATLAS

Presenters: SPEAKER, ATLAS; MEONI, Evelin (Universita della Calabria e INFN (IT))