

Evolution of Version Control Services at CERN: Life-cycle of Services

Alvaro Gonzalez Alvarez,
David Asbury, Georgios Koloventzos (CERN/IT)

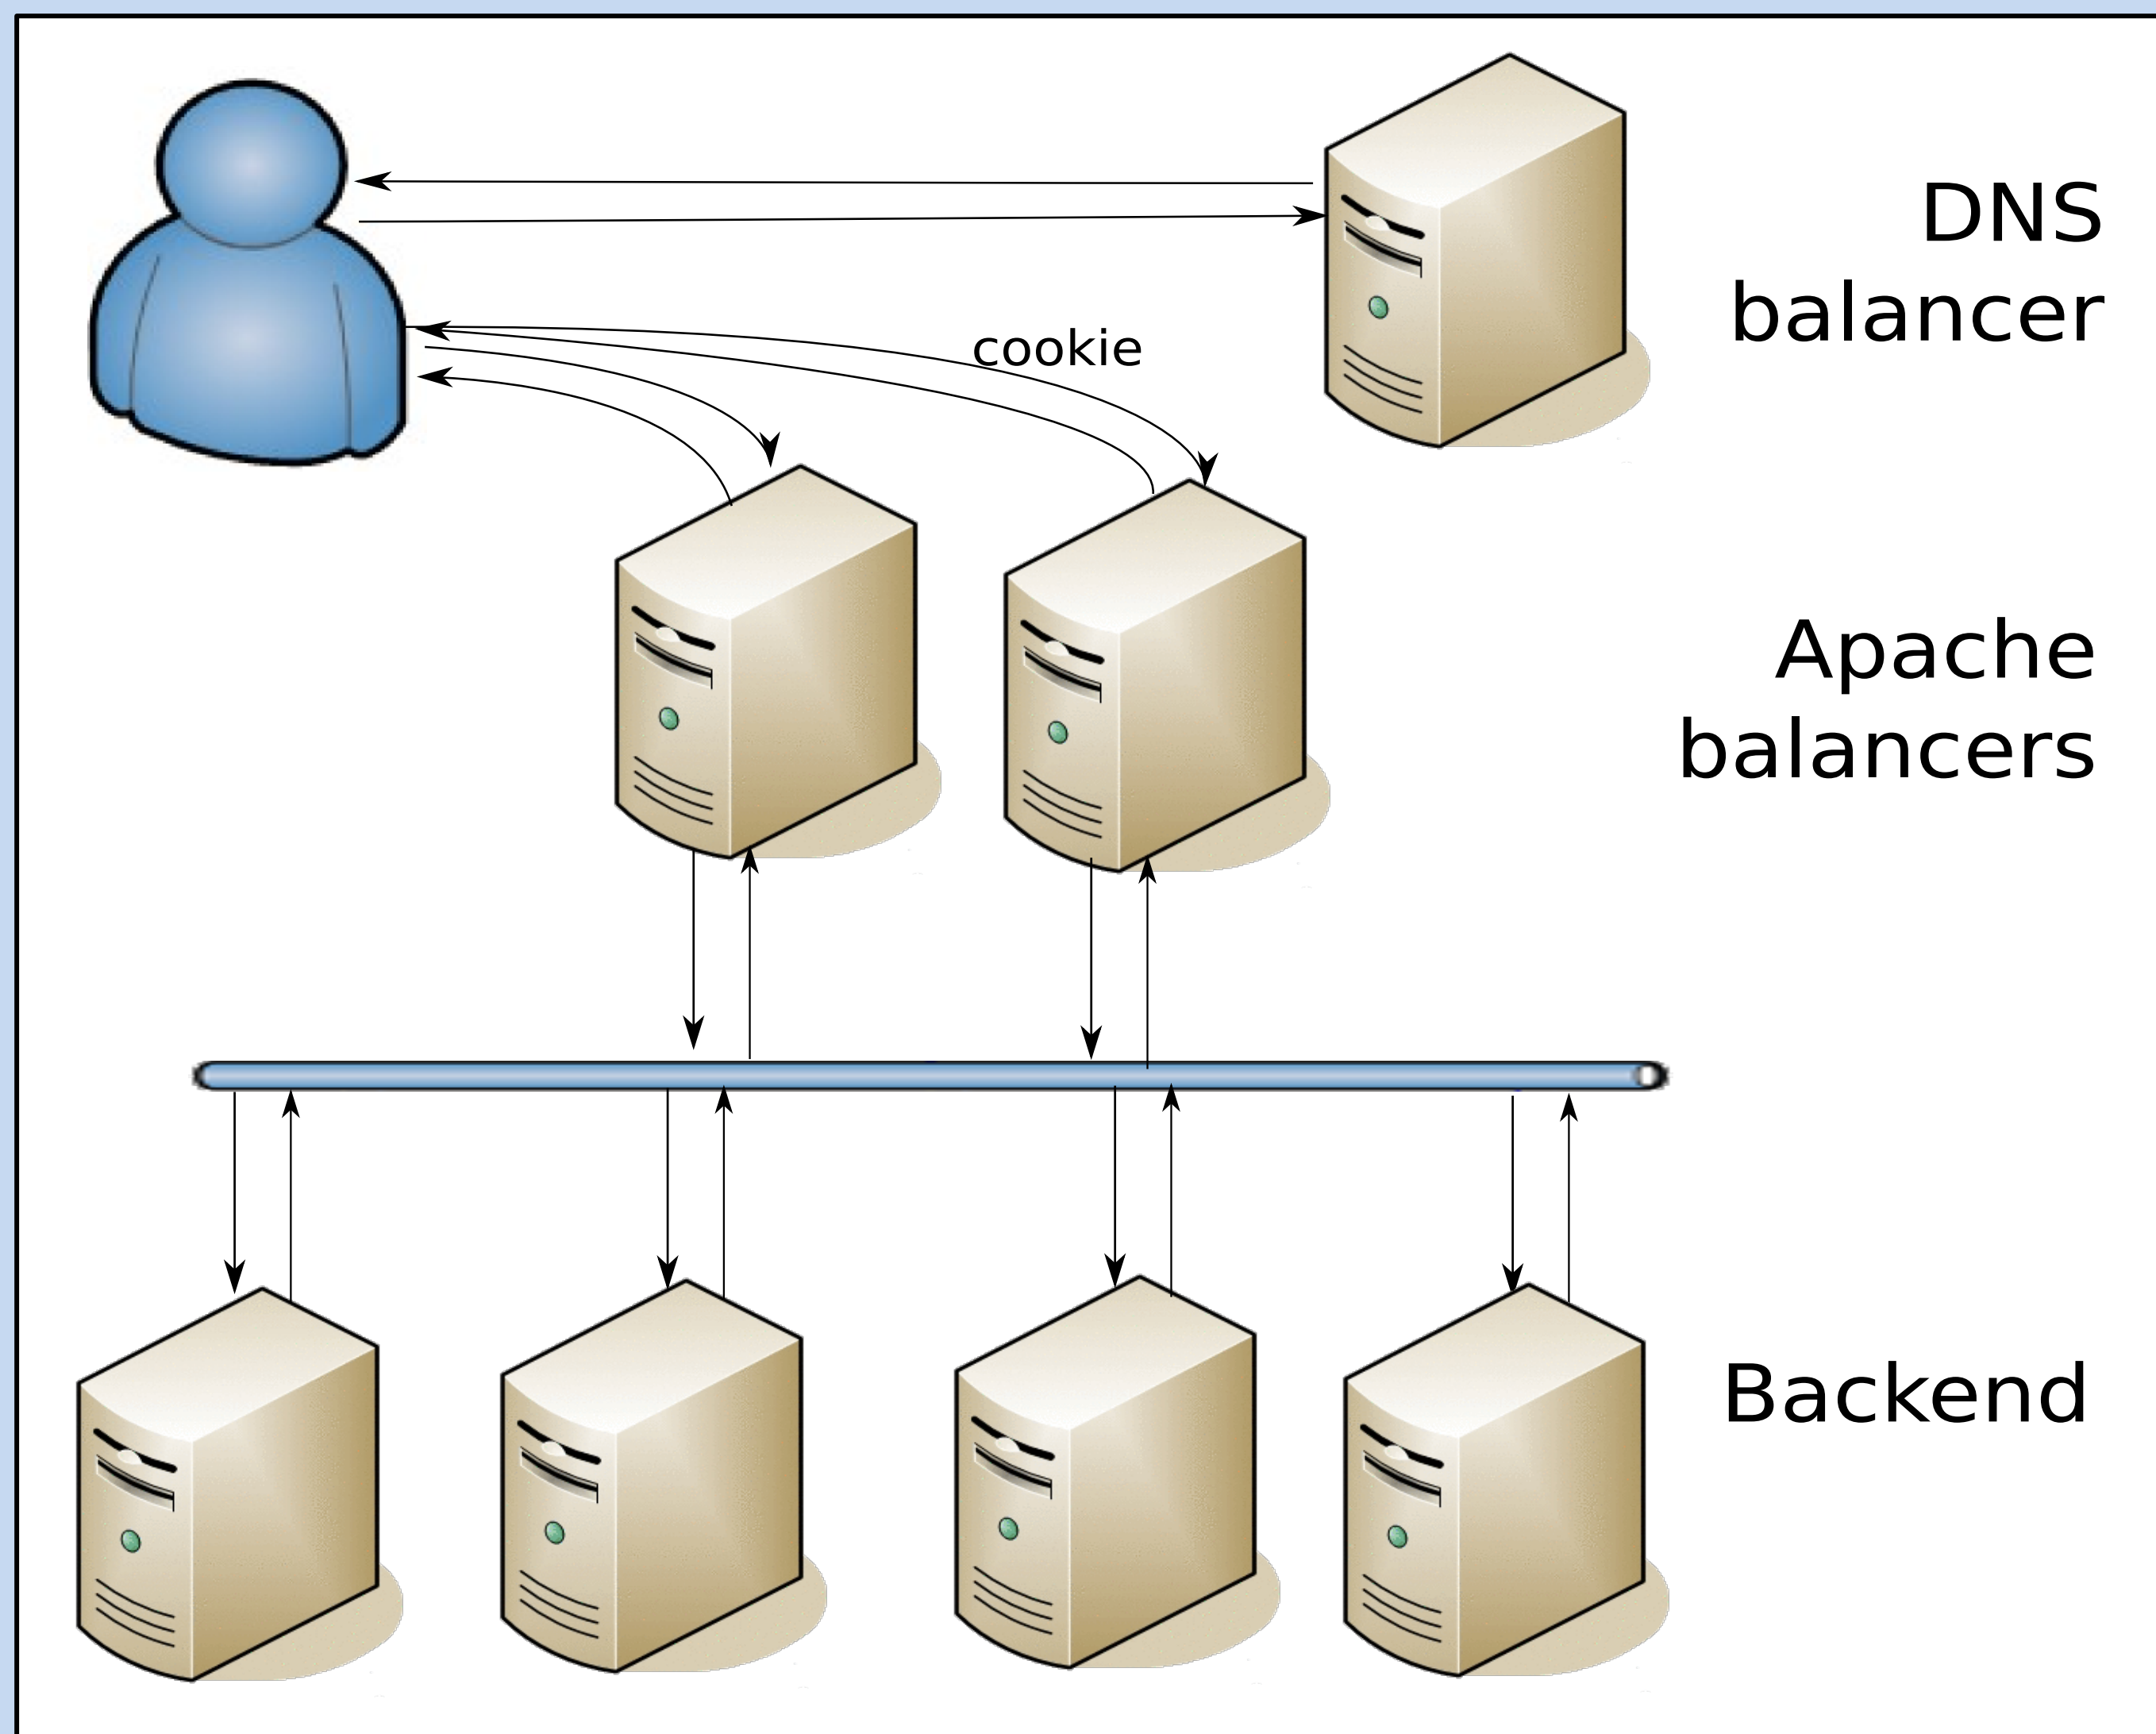

statistics today

20 CVS Active projects	363 SVN Active projects
299GB CVS code	819GB SVN code
48921 CVS commits /month	48921 SVN commits /month
v1.11.22 CVS version	v1.6.11 SVN version
365 CVS projects hosted	1029 SVN projects hosted

Statistics vs evens

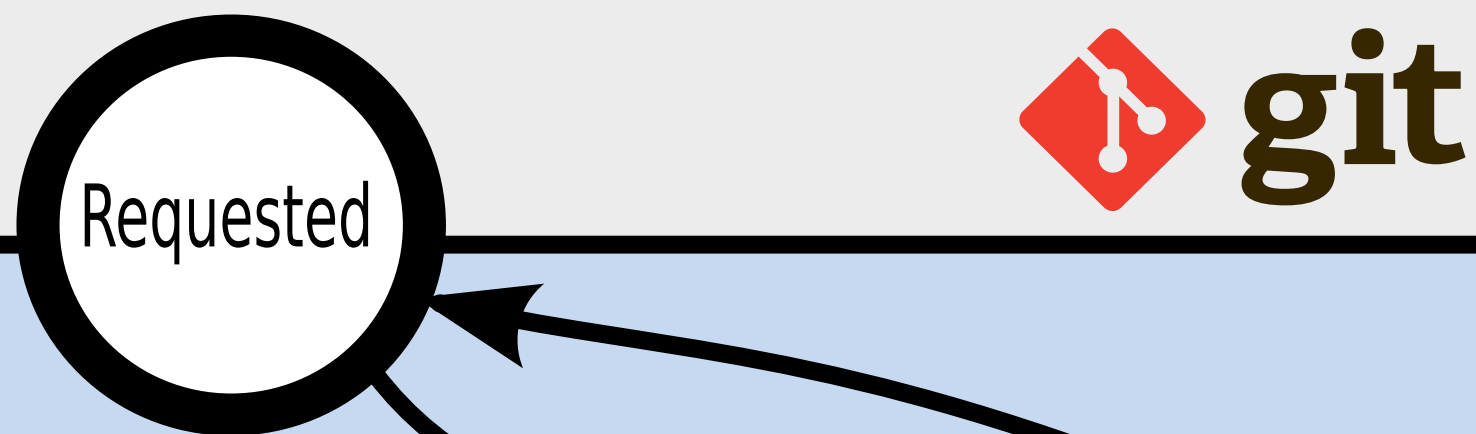

simple load balancing

1. Analysis of requirements, alternatives and resources.

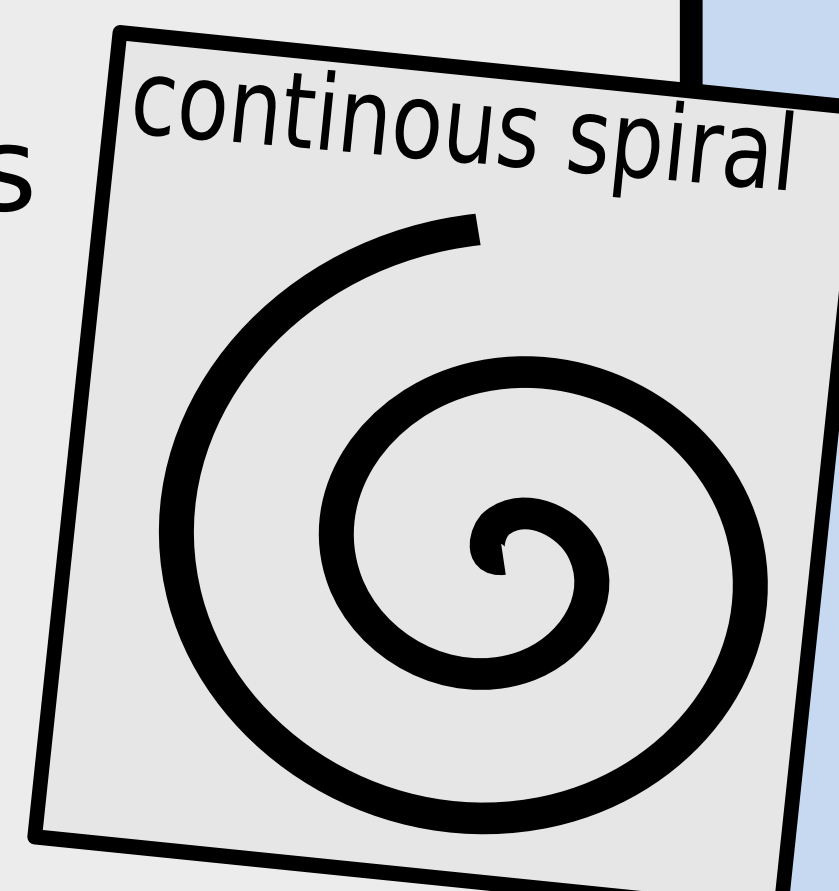

Design the service

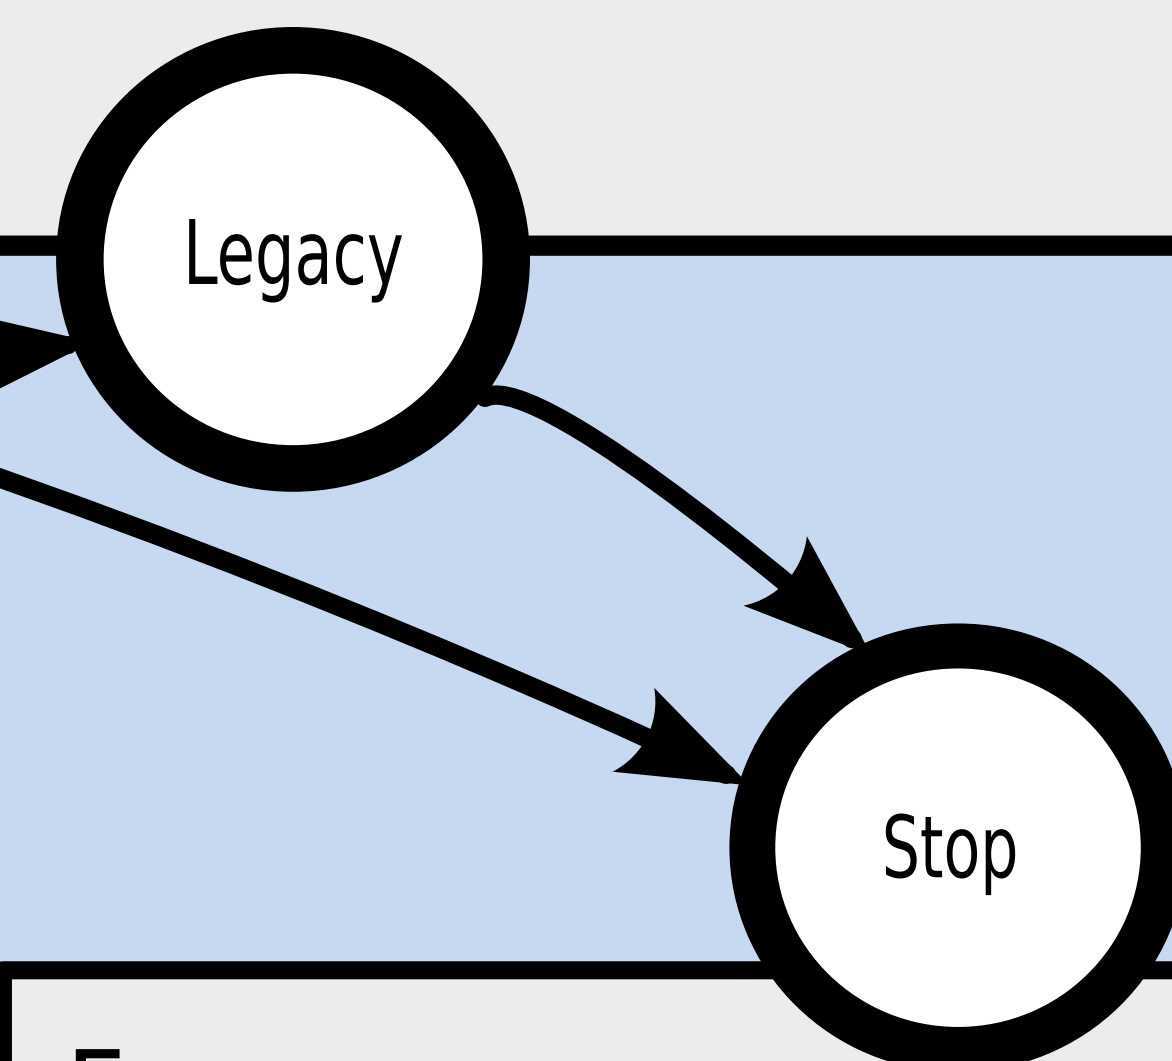

2. Implementation
Monitoring
Pilot user feedback

Lifecycle of a service

3. New requests
Add new features
Fix problems
Security updates
Improve/adapt monitoring
User support

4. No new features
Fix problems
Security updates
Limit resource usage
Keep service available

5. No resources used
Ensure safe deletion of sensitive data

