

Job opportunities at CERN for students and beyond

January 2026

Job areas

- Please refer to <https://careers.cern> for further information
- CERN has opportunities in many different disciplines
 - Applied Physics
 - Analytics & Data Science
 - Health, Safety & Environment
 - Material and Surface Science
 - Software Engineering & IT
 - Civil Engineering
 - Electrical or Electronics engineering
 - Mechanical Engineering
 - Support Services
 - Including Finance, Procurement and Logistics, Human Resources, Legal Services, Library
 - International relations
 - Including Education, Communications and Outreach

Opportunities for students ...

- Doctoral Student Programme
 - Do up to 3 years of your PhD research at CERN
- Technical Student Programme
 - Spend 4 to 12 months of your Bachelor or Master's studies at CERN
- Administrative Student Programme
 - Spend 2 to 12 months of your Bachelor or Master's studies at CERN
- Summer Student Programme
 - Spend up to 13 weeks in the summer months at CERN
- CERN openlab Summer Student Programme
 - For computer science students: spend 9 weeks in the summer months at CERN
- Short-Term Internship Programme
 - Spend 1 to 6 months of your technical or administrative studies at CERN

... and beyond !

- The ORIGIN Programme
 - Bachelor's or Master's degree
 - No more than 2 years of post-graduation professional experience
- The QUEST Programme
 - Master's degree with 2 to 6 years of post-graduation professional experience
 - PhD with no more than 3 years of post-graduation professional experience
- The RESEARCH Fellowship Programme
 - Graduated, or about to graduate, with a PhD
 - Up to 3 or 6 years of post-graduation professional experience
 - Depending on the vacancy area
- Staff positions
 - 5-year contracts with potential extension by up to 3 years
 - Opportunities to apply for indefinite contracts