TODAY

- We will have all the lectures in this main auditorium (R204).
- Coffee breaks will be serviced outside of this room, but please don't bring in any food or drinks.
- You should already get a mug (can be used during this week, and you can take it home as a gift). So please do not ask for paper cups!
- There are water dispensers on each floor. You can get filtered water from there.

TODAY

- We will have a group photo right before the lunch today.
- Lunches will be serviced at 13F of this building (with a good view!).
- We only have limited elevators that can take you to 13F. So you have to be patient. Our people will guide you right after the group photo to the correct elevator which can reach your food.
- The reception today will be served at the same place.

REGISTRATION

- The registration table is arranged outside of this room today.
- If you have not yet registered, please do so within today and pick up your name tag. Starting from tomorrow we can only do this during the lunch break.
- Your wifi account is in your name tag. The instruction can be found at the registration table.
- If you have registered for the banquet, you should get an invitation card with your name on it.
- The registration fee can only be paid in TWD cash.

RECEPTION

- We will have a reception this evening at 18:10, 13F of this building.
- Please try not to get too full and still keep some space in your stomach for the nearby night market.

TOMORROW AND AFTERWARDS

- Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday morning we will have short/long exercises. You will have to change physical rooms during the day. Please follow the indico carefully.
- Except Saturday, Lunches and coffee breaks will still be served on 13F. So please take your time and be patient for the slow elevators.
- Thursday evening we will have the banquet on the top of Taipei 101. We will bring you there by buses, but you are encouraged to fooling around after the dinner, and try to come back by yourselves.

TOMORROW AND AFTERWARDS

- We will bring you there by buses.
- Before the dinner please just go to the restaurant directly (please don't go to shopping! it's easy to get lost....)
- But you are encouraged to fooling around after the dinner, and try to come back by yourselves!

MISC ISSUES

- You will find an installed switch and some cables in a nearby box (or connected). Please feel free to use them but please don't take the switch or cable away.
- If you are staying in the NTU guest house, you have to pay for your room charge every time when you have a room change (e.g. from a twin room to 4-bed room).
- If you have not yet get your local computing account (the mars cluster), please ask us immediately!

PLEASE ENJOY!
