

Federated IdM

The Draft Paper

David Kelsey (STFC-RAL)
IdM workshop, ISGC 2012
27 Feb 2012

Aims of the paper

- Define a common policy and trust framework for Identity Management based on existing structures, federations and technologies
- Describe the needs of the research communities the status of the activities in the FIM domain and highlight specific use cases
- The common vision for FIM across these communities will be presented as well the key stages of the roadmap and a set of recommendations intended to ensure its implementation
- Has been prepared by the various community contacts/architects

Structure of the paper

- Introduction
- The need for Federated Identity Management
- Scientific Communities
  - High Energy Physics
  - Life Sciences
  - Humanities
  - European Neutron and Photon Facilities
  - Climate Science
  - Other parties (EEF, HTC, HPC, EMI, GEANT, TERENA, IGTF, ...)

Structure (2)

- Analysis of common needs
- A common vision for FIM
- Recommendations
- Relevance to European Policy
- Next steps
- References, Acknowledgements, Biographies

Now to the draft paper

- Use cases have been presented at the earlier workshops
  - And well described in the paper
- Study the Common Vision and Recommendations in detail
- See the draft paper available on the agenda
<https://indico.cern.ch/conferenceDisplay.py?confId=177418>