

Change of policy for availability re-computation requests

- Today requests for recomputation of availabilities are accepted at any time
 - For cases where the monitoring infrastructure was at fault
- This takes an huge amount of effort from the SAM team
 - There seem to be many very retroactive requests and some abuse of the facility
- We propose to limit the requests to 10 days following the problem